FLOOR AND MAIL BIDDING

PHILADELPHIA CONSIGNMENT

Note: This collection of Small Cents shows rather clearly the different stages a collector goes through starting from a beginner to an advanced collector. The Proofs -- some of the nicest ones we have handled for quite some time -- were replacements for the circulated and even the Uncirculated coins purchased when he was a beginner.

U. S. SMALL CENTS Flying Eagles

- 601. 1856 Extremely Fine to About Uncirculated, a very attractive and rare coin showing only the faintest trace of handling. Would not be surprised if it brought over $1,000.00
- 602. 1857 Brilliant Uncirculated, a gem, worth close to $50.00
- 603. 1857, 1858 Large and Small letters. Very Fine to About Uncirculated, 3 pieces, $50.00
- 604. 1857, 1858 Lg. and Sm. Very Good and Fine, 3 pieces --

- 606. 1858 Small letters. Brill.Unc. just as choice and rare.

SMALL CENTS

Indian Head Type

Rare Transitional Issue

607. 1858 Transitional Indian Head Cent. The very rarest type of transitional Indian Cent with the regular reverse that appears on Flying Eagle Cents. Proof, less than 100 pieces known to exist, $500.00
608. 1859 Indian Head Cent with reverse of 1860. Brilliant Uncirculated, extremely rare. One of the most popular transitional pieces. Should bring over $325.00

619. 1864 Bronze, 1865-66 Ext.Fine to About Unc.choice, 3 pcs.

Proof 1864 L on Ribbon

620. 1864 L on ribbon. Beautiful Brilliant red Proof. One of the four or five unquestionably genuine Proofs that we have handled in over 25 years. Medium red with very slight toning, a beautiful coin but due to the extreme rarity and value, we must mention a microscopic hairline mark in the field near the "D" in United. Being one of the most sought-after coins in the United States series, it is difficult to estimate what a coin such as this will bring at auction. Records and inquiries would indicate that it should bring close to $3,500.00

RARE SAN FRANCISCO MINT DOUBLE EAGLE

- 1380. 1930 S Mint, Uncirculated, well struck, just as nice as the day it was made. The catalogue does not indicate the real rarity of this coin, which is equally true of several other dates in this series. I believe the 1930 S Mint is second only in rarity to the 1927 D Mint. I also believe that this specimen should bring well over $1,500.00

- 1381. 1915 Panama-Pacific $2.50 Gold, Uncirculated. Becoming quite scarce, $175.00

UNITED STATES LARGE CENTS

Rare 1868 Large Cent

LOT 1440.

1868 Large Cent, red and brown toned Proof.
The 1868 Large Cent was clandestinely manufactured in that year by Mint employees and is of the same nature as the 1884 and 1885 Trade Dollar, 1804 Silver Dollar, 1913 Liberty Head Nickel and other similar issues.

It is beginning to be recognized as one of the major rarities of the entire series of United States coins and certainly few items in any series exceed it in rarity.

As the rarest date of any U. S. copper coin, it is potentially worth the $30,000.00 to $50,000.00 valuations that have been placed on the 1804 Dollar and the 1913 Nickel. To the best of our knowledge less than six specimens are known. The last one offered was priced at $7,250.00. This one could bring $10,000.00

UNITED STATES QUARTERS

- 1655. 1796 Fine date, all lettering and design on obverse plain, although not sharp; reverse badly worn, eagle and small part of inscription readable. Certainly not a gem but an acceptable specimen for the collector not in a position to pay a fantastic price such as gems are bringing. We consider the obverse Good; Reverse, Poor. A similar coin was sold recently for $750.00.
- 1656. 1804 Fine date, balance of coin shows even wear. In no way damaged. While consignor purchased it at a higher grading, the best we can call it is Good to About Very Good. Reportedly cost $150.00.
- 1657. 1805 Fine to Very Fine. Was purchased from Midwest Auction as having Very Fine obverse, Extremely Fine reverse. Cost $150.00.
- 1658. 1815 Very Fine to Extremely Fine. One of the few coins struck at the Mint during this year when it operated only a few months due to fire. Rare and valued by consignor at $150.00.
- 1659. 1818 over 15 Extremely Fine, choice and rare, consignor claims to have paid $125.00.

- 1672. 1872 CC Mint. Very Good, could be considered Fine for this extremely rare coin as they are seldom found in better condition. Should bring considerably over its catalogue value of $195.00.
- 1673. 1873 CC Mint, arrows at date. Design and lettering plain and sharp; however, we consider it barely Fine, although it was purchased as Fine to Very Fine. It is certainly extremely rare and worth close to consignor's value of $750.00.
- 1674. 1877 S Mint, Horizontal S. About Fine, rare, cats. $80.00

SILVER DOLLARS

Extremely Rare 1794

- 1809. 1794 Stars and lettering on left weak as is characteristic of all genuine specimens of this rare coin. Reverse better than average strike. Consignor purchased coin as Fine to Very Fine, but regardless of rarity we consider the Obverse About Fine; the Reverse Fine. The consignor's records indicate he purchased the coin many years ago for $2,600.00.
- 1810. 1797 Stars 10 x 6. Extremely Fine, this date has always been greatly under-rated. Valued by consignor at $250.00
- 1811. 1797 Stars 9 x 6. Purchased as Uncirculated, we consider it practically so. Certainly a rare and desirable coin, reportedly cost $400.00
- 1812. 1802 over 1 Very Fine, catalogues $80.00
- 1813. 1842 Extremely Fine to About Uncirculated, $35.00
- 1814. 1847 Fine, $17.50
